

Leave it all behind,
and follow me.
He says to us,
so we'll walk with thee.

It's not half hearted,
in fact it's mad.
To up and go,
to make him glad.

'Cause I can feel your power in this room,
And I can see your face in all I do.
All I want is to, fall on you.
To love you just like lovers do.

The world behind,
the cross before.
No turning back,
won't you take the floor.

Take my microphone,
strum this guitar.
Humble my feet,
and this restless heart.

(Chorus)

You're my first love,
Before the world's demands,
at your feet I'll fall.

You're my first love,
Before the world's demands,
at your feet I'll fall.

'Cause I can feel your power in this room,
And I can see your face in all I do.
All I want is to, fall on you.
To love you just like lovers do.
