

G C G
 Have I told you that I love you,
 D/F# Em
 Have I told you you're alright,
 C
 Have I told you that, the skies are so much brighter, G
 when I'm standing by your side.

Have I told you that you're clever,
 and you're wiser than you know.
 Have I told you that, making up ideas with you,
 is the best part of the show.

Am Em G
As I gaze, how I adore your face,
Am Em D/F# (G)
So unaware of, how you have such grace.

Have I told you that I love it,
 when you let me say my words,
 how sit there and just listen to whatever,
 comes out my mouth first.

Have I told you I've been told,
 By the first love of us both,
 That he'd like us to stay a while,
 and hold each other when we're cold.

(Chorus)

D Em C D G
 (Instrumental) - Ooooooooooh x2

(x2)- over Chorus (w ebow)

Have I told you that you're stupid,
 'Cause you asked what the was about,
 When I think it's fairly obvious,
 that I'm singing to you out loud.

Have I told you that?

Have I told you that I love you,
Have I told you you're alright,
Have I told you that, the skies are so much brighter,
when I'm standing by your side.

Have I told you that you're clever,
and you're wiser than you know.
Have I told you that, making up ideas with you,
is the best part of the show.

As I gaze, how I adore your face,
So unaware of, how you have such grace.

Have I told you that I love it,
when you let me say my words,
how sit there and just listen to whatever,
comes out my mouth first.

Have I told you I've been told,
By the first love of us both,
That he'd like us to stay a while,
and hold each other when we're cold.

(Chorus)

Oooooooooooh x2

(Chorus)

Have I told you that you're stupid,
'Cause you asked what the was about,
When I think it's fairly obvious,
that I'm singing to you out loud.

Have I told you that?